Attorney General Darrell McGraw Applauds Mattel For Toy Recall And Vendor Disclosure

Charleston – Attorney General Darrell McGraw today announced that he has sent a letter of appreciation to the president of one of America's largest toy companies, Mattel Inc. for the company's recent voluntary recall of some 967,000 Fisher-Price toys tainted with lead paint and for publicizing the name of the Chinese company, Lee Der Industrial Co. which manufactured the toys for Mattel in an attempt to alert competitors which might be using the Chinese company. Mattel is the parent company of Fisher-Price.

"Both the voluntary recall and the disclosure of the vendor's name are actions which should be recognized," McGraw stated.
